A Message from Our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish:

As we come together to celebrate Mass today, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ [Corpus Christi] we hear these important words:

“I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.”

Will we be thinking of the meaning of these words as we walk up to Holy Communion? Can we explain to others what Holy Communion is and why it is so necessary in our lives?

God fed the Jews with Manna from heaven as they lived in the desert for forty years to keep them going.

God feeds us with the Body and Blood of his son Jesus, who gave his life for us to give us what we need in our journey of life until we reach heaven. Holy Communion is something we all need as we go about our lives on earth.

Let us reflect upon what is really important. Is there anything in our lives that keeps us from going to Holy Communion? And, what can we do to change it?

Maybe we need to go to confession, the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Do we need to have our marriages blessed in the church so it can become a Sacrament? Can we make it happen? Our loving God offers us a real gift, please let us not reject that gift.

Happy Father’s Day to our Fathers, Grandfathers and Godfathers!

Our fathers and mothers give us life and give us our talent and gifts to use throughout our lives. It is God’s design that a father should be involved in the life of the child and to take care of, to teach and prepare the child to become an adult. The role of the father is also to be a good example throughout the child’s life.

We pray today that all fathers will see their role and not only live it, but be happy to be a good, loving Father.

God Bless,

Fr. Larry Young
Pastor of St. Patrick Church

TRUST IN JESUS

Today's feast celebrates another central mystery of our faith—the mystery of the Eucharist. Like the mystery of the Trinity, the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist can never be fully understood, but can only be believed. Just as the Israelites in the desert were invited to put their trust in God's word to them, we are invited to trust wholly in the word of Jesus. In today's Gospel Jesus promises to give us a share in his very own flesh and blood, and a share in eternal life besides. We are called to take him at his word and open our hearts to receive true nourishment and life from our participation in the Eucharist.
