A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

Today, as we begin to prepare for Thanksgiving Day, food, family, friends, long walks after we eat dinner, our thoughts should also reflect upon things we are thankful for in each of our lives.

As we plan for our dinner, let us plan to go to Mass at 9:00am and thank our God for all our many blessings. We invite you to bring a food or drink item to Mass with you so we can bless them and then you take them to your dinner to share the blessings of the Mass and Eucharist.

We should also provide some food for so many in our community that need a little help this year. The St. Vincent de Paul Society, along with St. Patrick School are preparing Thanksgiving baskets to help others.

As we also prepare for Thanksgiving, we should thank God for our many talents and blessings that make us and others so happy and in love with our God.

I hope that as we hear the Word of the Book of Proverbs today, we will take time to think of the meaning of this beautiful reflection. The value of a worthy wife is beyond pearls. See her pearls, and not any of her faults. The husband entrusts his heart to her, not just his paycheck. For those of us who are not married maybe we can thank God for all the women in our lives who make life better for us.

We are also reminded that we are children of the light and not the darkness, let us not forget Jesus Christ is our light and shows us the way to eternal life.

Fr. Michael and I, and all the Pastoral Staff wish each of you a very Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving Day.

God Bless,

Fr. Larry Young
Pastor

2017 ADVENT FAMILY WREATH LIGHTING

Advent season is almost upon us. This is the time when we prepare ourselves for the coming of our Lord for this Christmas season. The first Advent Sunday is on December 3, and the fourth Sunday is on December 24. We would like to invite families to think about volunteering to light the Advent wreath candles on one of the Masses during these weekends. We encourage families to sign up for this joyous task and make it a teaching moment for the young. The sign-up sheet is located at the Sacristy.
