A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

First of all, today, let us say Happy Father's Day to God our Father in heaven, who created us and gave us our birth Father here on earth.

Next, Happy Father's Day to all Fathers, Grandfathers and Godfathers on this Father's Day. We pray for them on this day and ask God the Father to bless them. If they are deceased, we pray they are praying for us from heaven with God our Creator.

We have the beautiful example of Jesus Christ praying to His Father in heaven and teaching us to also pray to our loving Father in heaven.

I keep being asked, "Father, when will we have Mass in Church?" The only answer I can give is, "When it is safe for all of us to gather." This will be determined by lawful authority, the Contra Costa Board and the Bishop of Oakland. And, when we, here at St. Patrick Parish can make all of the requirements needed to open safely. It does look like only 100 people can be in the church and there are many other restrictions.

The other day a little child said to me, "Father, I miss being in God's house, when can I go inside?" My hope is that I want all of us, no matter what age, to think like this child and want to be in God's house every Sunday.

Please keep giving your Sacrificial Gift Offering to the church. The Parish has taken a big loss to our regular weekly and Easter Collections. We all need to do our part the best we can. Thank you to everyone who are faithfully handing in or mailing in your gift. We need you help.

God Bless,

Fr. Larry Young
Pastor

LIFE AT ST. PATRICK PARISH

DRIVE-THRU COMMUNION - As a parish, we are so grateful for our parishioners who are helping with the drive-thru communion each Sunday. We could not do it without you. When we are able to have Mass in the Church, we will need many to help us meet all of the restrictions.

DINNER DANCE REFUNDS - To the best of my knowledge, last Monday June 15, all of the St. Patrick Dinner Dance refund checks were mailed and delivered. We are sorry for the long delay but with our Parish Office closed and no staff, it was difficult. A special thank you to Tita Escalada and the Dinner Dance committee who worked so hard on this event. We are grateful that they did raise $12,000 for the parish. We will see you in green next year on Saturday, March 13, 2021 at the next St. Patrick Dinner Dance.

GOD LOVES US - During these difficult times of unrest, hate-filled words, vandalism, inflicting of pain, and yes killings, let us remember that each one of us was created by God and loved by God. Even when we are bad, God wants us to love Him and our neighbors and behave.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION - Next Sunday is the Peter's Pence Collection. There is an envelope for this collection included in your Sacrificial Envelopes. This collection is for Pope Francis to help people around the world when there is a crisis. Please be generous.

SMILING THRU THE MASKS - It is hard to smile with a mask on, but the mask is necessary. Please know that Fr. Mike and I are smiling and happy to see you whenever, wherever, and know that you are loved.

MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS - Let us pray during the month of June to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, open and outpouring His love and redemption to all people. The power of prayer and faith can refresh and renew and change can happen.
