A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

With the celebration of the Baptism of the Lord, the Christmas Season is completed and next Sunday, we begin with Ordinary Time and the color of the vestments is back to green.

The Feast today, reminds us that Jesus did not have original sin and never sinned, but He showed us that the Sacrament of Baptism is something very special and He showed the way.

We see Jesus in prayer after all the people had been Baptized and I am sure He was praying for all those people to not go back to their sinning ways. Jesus is also most likely thinking about the next three years of His life and especially Good Friday, when He will be rejected and killed.

Living today, in 2025, we recall the voice of God from heaven saying something that must be clear to us today, “you are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”

Yes, that is who Jesus Christ is and why we should believe in Him and His teachings as we await His Second coming whenever that may be.

Today is a good time to reflect upon our own Baptism at whatever age it may have been. Do we know where was the Church, the country that we were Baptized? Do we know or have we even met our godparents? Do we realize that the day of our Baptism brought us into the family of God and will help us to one day get to heaven?

Happy Baptism Day to all of us.

God Bless ,
Fr. Larry Young
Your Pastor

Life at St. Patrick Parish

Are we an Active Parish?

Knights of Columbus - The Parish wishes to thank the Knights of Columbus for donating $1,500.00 to the Parish Faith Formation Ministry from their Tri Tip recent fundraiser. Anything that helps our youth is a real blessing.

Christmas Collection - The Parish is also thankful to all who contributed $42,234.04 as of 1/2/25, to the Parish Christmas Collection. We had a budget of $42,000.00 and we made it.

Thank You - Also, Fr. Jun and Fr. Larry wishes to thank everyone who remembered us at Christmas with gifts, but more so with prayers for our ministry to the Parish.

Open House - St. Patrick Catholic School and Infant Care will be hosting an Open House on Sunday, January 26th from 10:30am - noon. Please come visit and invite your family and friends to consider enrolling at St. Patrick Catholic School for 2025 - 2026. Our new Parish Entertainment Center is taking shape and we are looking forward to many happy events to come.

Bible Class - Fr. Larry's Bible Class on Monday morning and repeated Tuesday evening, prepares us for the Bible readings of the next Sunday Mass. The class is only an hour and gives us much to think about before we attend the next Sunday Mass. All are welcome to attend and learn more about our Catholic Faith.
