A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

Can we identify with Isaiah in the First Reading today when he says, “For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips.” We see so much of this in our world today. Well, the voice of God said to him, “Your wickedness is removed, your sin is purged.” Oh, thank God we can have this happen every time we go to confession.

The voice of the Lord said to Isaiah, “Whom shall I send?” “Who will go for us?” Isaiah says, “Here I am.” I said, “Send me.”

We can “Send Me”.....I will be a minister of liturgy at Mass in my parish, or a faith formation helper. I can help clean the church. I can take communion to the sick. I can help our teens to realize our love for God and His church.

Maybe we are like Paul and did not do what God wanted until he really reached out to him. Maybe we stopped going to Mass, stopped receiving the Sacraments, etc. What a turnaround by Paul and a great example to all of us.

The Gospel shows us that Peter, James and John had to trust Jesus and do what He said and found out that Jesus was right and caught so many fish and they left everything to follow Him.

Don't forget, Friday is Valentine's Day. We tell the people we love that we really love them. Don't forget to tell God that we love him too! It is easy to send a Valentine card, give flowers, go to dinner, etc. But saying, I am sorry that I hurt you, I did not forgive you, I did not reach out to help, says from the heart, I LOVE YOU!

Happy Valentine's Day to all of you.

God Bless,
Fr. Larry, Fr Jun and all our St. Patrick Parish Team
