A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

The Gospel today is also known as the 'Sermon on the Mountain' given by Jesus to the Apostles and also meant for all of us.

As we listen to Jesus speak to us today, I often think about advice we read in the newspapers, etc. such as, "Dear Abby" and her advice on how to deal with problems.

- * Blessed are you who are poor, does not mean we have to be poor, it means we do not let money control how we act in this world and see money as our God.
- * Blessed are you who are hungry, does not mean we have to starve to death. But that we do not let ambition and pride control our actions in life.
- * Blessed are you when people hate you and exclude and insult you, as it often happens to Christians because we follow Christ. The view from heaven looking up will be better than the view looking down at hell and the devil and all his followers.

Psalm 1, today is the best advice we can have in our struggles in life.

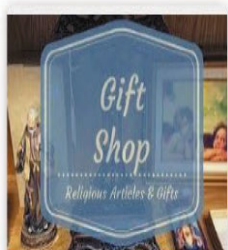

"Blessed are they who hope in the Lord." This Jubilee Year, we follow the theme: "Pilgrims of Hope".

Thoughts of being in Heaven:

1. Best food in town.
2. Friendly, loving people who have lived the Great Commandments and now enjoy their reward.
3. Being loved by God and all those who will be with us in heaven forever and never having to think about what is that person thinking about me.

God Bless ,
Fr. Larry Young
Your Pastor
