A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

This Fifth Sunday of Lent, the scriptural readings will have given us many spiritual and practical thoughts to pray over and reflect upon the 40 days of Lent, that will lead us to Holy Week next Sunday which is Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord.

The Gospel today is about the woman caught in adultery and how Jesus showed care and compassion toward her and yet did not hesitate to tell her not to sin in the future.

During Jesus' three years of ministry before He is killed on the cross, He preached mercy and forgiveness to all people and even dying on the cross He asked the Father to forgive those who were killing Him. Jesus did not talk one way and do another way.

We must remember Jesus loves the sinner and is willing to forgive if the sinners seek mercy and forgiveness. Yes, Jesus hates the sin but loves the sinner.

As Christian people who believe in and follow Jesus' teachings, we must also accept His position.

We are not to gossip and spread rumors and other things that show a hate or strong dislike to the sinners. We want the sinners to stop sinning and let God forgive them and we are also called to forgive.

With two weeks of Lent left, we should be preparing to go to Confession and prepare for the joy of Easter and Resurrection and be truly happy and joyful and grateful to God for His love and mercy.

It is popular to say Happy Sunday, but do we really mean it and how do we reflect true peace and happiness to people we may not like? Happy Sunday should reflect the words of Jesus, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

Freedom from sin can bring true happiness. Do we want it?

God Bless ,
Fr. Larry Young
Your Pastor

SPEAKER, DR. BRYAN THATCHER, MD, is a retired medical doctor who travels worldwide to spread the message of Divine Mercy. In 1994, he and his wife Susan founded Eucharistic Apostles of Divine Mercy (EADM), now an apostolate of the Congregation of Marians of the Immaculate Conception based in Stockbridge, MA. The mission of EADM is to spread the message of Divine Mercy, primarily through prayer cenacles integrating Scripture, the Catechism, and the Diary of Saint Faustina. They promote the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, prayer for the sick and dying, and the corporal works of mercy. There are over 4,000 cenacles in the United States and the ministry is active in over 30 countries. The ministry promotes the notion that Divine Mercy is more than a devotion, but rather, a "Way of Life."

Jesus, I trust in You!

UNITED IN GENEROSITY AS ONE GLOBAL FAMILY

Amid the harsh conditions of the Sahel region's 1976 drought, millions faced hunger. That same year, Catholics worldwide gathered at the 41st International Eucharistic Congress in Philadelphia, focusing on "The Eucharist and the Hungers of the Human Family." As Lent draws to a close, let's reflect on how our prayers, fasting and almsgiving can help ensure no one goes hungry in the middle of today's global food crisis. In the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.
